Dear Alexander:

On behalf of the Committee on Admissions, it is my pleasure to offer you admission to the University of Wisconsin-Madison in the College of Letters & Science.

Our holistic admissions process is designed to seek out talented individuals like you; students who demonstrate a commitment to academic excellence while contributing to their schools and communities. I join our campus leaders in celebrating your achievements thus far and look forward to welcoming you in Fall 2026.

Additionally, you have been selected to participate in the Center for Educational Opportunity (CeO). CeO is a valuable community that cultivates student success. The opportunities granted are exclusive, personalized, and designed to maximize your higher education and career goals. Learn more at ceo.wisc.edu

You can confirm your enrollment by accepting your offer of admission through your Student Center at go.wisc.edu/my-decision. Your enrollment deposit has been waived. Be sure to review your Admitted Student Checklist found at admissions.wisc.edu/admitted for next steps regarding financial aid, campus housing, and orientation for new students. Pay close attention to deadlines and any official documents required to finalize your admission. We strongly believe that you will continue with the academic success you have shown as your admission to the university is dependent upon maintaining the academic record and progression indicated on your application.

As a student at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, you will be challenged to use what you learn both inside and outside of the classroom to make positive changes in your community and the world.

Congratulations on your admission!

Sincerely,

André E. Phillips
